(2) Defendant testified at the Grand Jury in January 1999. Defendant provided detailed information about his sources for cocaine--a certified public accountant in Atlanta and an acquaintance in Miami. Investigation is pending.

Defendant has provided substantial assistance in the investigation or prosecution of other persons who have committed offenses.

Accordingly, the United States moves for a reduction in sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

CARL K. KIRKPATRICK

U.S. DISTRICT COURT

Y. [Signature] DEP. CLERK

GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR REDUCTION IN SENTENCE
PURSUANT TO RULE 35(b)

Comes the United States of America by Carl K. Kirkpatrick, United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Tennessee, and Assistant United States Attorney Paul W. Laymon, Jr., and conditionally moves the court for a reduction in sentence pursuant to Rule 35(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Defendant pled guilty to cocaine offenses. After defendant was sentenced he provided assistance to the United States as to the whereabouts of his codefendant, Odell Tucker, who fled soon after he was indicted by the federal Grand Jury. Based in part on the information provided by defendant, the U.S. Marshal's Service tracked Tucker to the Caribbean. It is expected that Tucker will soon be arrested.

If Tucker is arrested and extradited to the United States, Wright will be a significant witness in any prosecution of Tucker. However, because the United States is not sure when, or if, Tucker will return to the United States, it is conditionally filing this Rule 35 motion before the time runs to file such a motion.

The United States would ask the court to hold the motion pending the possible arrest and extradition of Odell Tucker.

Respectfully submitted,

CARL K. KIRKPATRICK,
United States Attorney
